

The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary

Course Descriptions for Asynchronous Classes

The following classes are available for distance students as of January 2022.
This list will be updated as more classes are added in an asynchronous format.

- SW700 Baptist Beliefs
Required Class—IMB Approved for wives' requirement
- Instructors: Drs. Albert Mohler, Paul Akin, Dustin Bruce, Matthew Hall and Hershael York
- Text: The Baptist Faith and Message by Charles S. Kelley Jr., Richard Land and R. Albert Mohler, Jr. (LifeWay) ISBN 1415852958
- Description: Prepare to be tremendously enriched by this course on doctrine. The seminary's president and four of its deans/provost will introduce you to eleven doctrines of faith. They will teach as they would to church members or lay people on an undergraduate level. We believe you will find the text to be both readable and enlightening. Grades will be based on short quizzes given and graded by SWI faculty. The quizzes will cover study guides, notes and lectures. We predict you will use what you learn in this course for years to come. You will also gain a greater appreciation and understanding of what your husbands spend years studying.
- SW704 Essentials I and II
SW705 Required Classes—must be taken together
- Instructors: Team taught by faculty wives (and one session taught by a seminary professor)
- Texts: The Pastor's Wife by Gloria Furman (Crossway 2015)
Help! I am Married to My Pastor by Jani Ortlund (Crossway 2021)
- Description: Join us for 12 sessions in just three days! Considered to be the core courses in our practical curriculum, Essentials I and II deal with your calling as a Christian and a ministry wife; marriage from both a Biblical and practical perspective; your influence on children as well as many other practical areas that apply to ministry life including mentoring, time management, listening and discerning skills, hospitality, starting well/finishing well in various settings and more. You will glean so much wisdom from these three days as you learn about many different topics from many different ministry wives—all of whom have a passion for their particular topic. Short assignments are given for each of the 12 sessions.

SW710 Closer Look at Theology: The Centrality of Scripture for the Christian Life
Elective Class—IMB approved for wives' requirement

Instructor: Dr. Bruce A. Ware

Text: From the Mouth of God: Trusting, Reading, and Applying the Bible by Sinclair B. Ferguson (The Banner of Truth Trust), 2014. ISBN 9781848712423

Description: Learn what makes the Bible a fully unique book, and the most important book for our lives. Marvel that it comes from God, with God's own revealed words and divine authority, and so it alone can guide us faithfully and accurately in what we believe and how we should live. Attention will be given to Scripture's inspiration, inerrancy, illumination, and sufficiency. The course ends with considering how we may best read and digest the Bible for our everyday lives.

SW711 Closer Look at the OT: Amos
Elective Class—IMB approved for wives' requirement

Instructor: Dr. T.J. Betts

Text: Amos: An Ordinary Man with an Extraordinary Message by T.J. Betts (Christian Focus) ISBN 1845507274

Description: Through this study of Amos, we will be reminded of the importance of the Word of God in our lives. The aim will be to make the messages of this book come alive for the students by paying particular attention to how God uses human agents to accomplish His purposes. Special emphasis will also be placed on developing a theology of ministry so the students will have a sounder biblical understanding of God's claim upon them and their husbands.

SW714 Ministry of Hospitality
Elective Class

Instructor: Mrs. Mary K. Mohler

Text: A Life that Says Welcome: Simple Ways to Open Your Heart and Home to Others by Karen Ehman, (Revell) ISBN 0800731395

Description: Join us for this elective as we explore the many methods of practicing hospitality. We will first look at the biblical basis for this often lost art. We will then look at the areas specifically related to ministry. Some of the many topics include serving your own family, recipe and menu organization, event planning at home and at church, etiquette, hospitality in writing, evangelistic hospitality and overcoming challenges. Students will have the opportunity to demonstrate hospitality as a part of this course. Practical assignments correspond to the weekly topics.

SW715 Women of the Bible
Elective Class

Instructor: Mrs. Sharon M. Beougher

Text: Assigned portions of the Bible

Description: The Bible mentions 187 women by name and refers to hundreds of nameless women. We can learn priceless lessons from them to see what God wants to teach us on how to be a godly woman; on the other hand, we can also learn from others in God's Word some mistakes to avoid. In this course we will take a look at Esther, Ruth, Jochebed (Moses' mother), the Hebrew midwives, Naaman's wife's maid, the Proverbs 31 woman, Rahab, Lydia, Mary and Martha, Mary, the mother of Jesus, Lois, Eunice and others. We will also learn how to do a biographical Bible study. Students will be expected to write a personal application from the life of each woman we study to turn in weekly, and will choose a woman about whom to write a biographical study to turn in at the end of the course.

SW707 Evangelism Skills for Women
Required Class

Instructor: Mrs. Sharon M. Beougher

Texts: How to Give Away Your Faith by Paul Little. (IVP) ISBN 9780810848546
Overcoming Walls by Timothy K. Beougher

Description: This course will challenge you in personal evangelism, give a variety of practical helps in how to share the gospel and help you answer some of the challenging questions people have about the gospel. Some specific topics that will be covered are: giving your personal salvation testimony, how to share the Bridge Illustrations, the importance of prayer in evangelism, how to use creative ideas for the purpose of evangelism, how to share the gospel to children and how to do basic follow up of a new Christian. Accountability groups of three will be used to continue spiritual disciplines and to gain practice in presenting some of these methods discussed.

SW708 Leadership Skills for Women
Required Class

Instructor: Mrs. Jessica Joslin

Text: Life-giving Leadership by Karen Hodge and Susan Hunt (CDM/PCA) 2018
ISBN 9781944964351

Description: This course is designed to help the student understand what leadership looks like for women in the home, in the church and in the community. We will be identifying the character and skills that God praises in those who serve Him. We will also be personalizing the answers to the questions, "Where do I lead?" "Who do I lead?" and “How do I lead?” as we explore each woman’s gifting and skills. The students will have the opportunity to put into practice what they have learned as they pray for and plan ways to lead in the spheres in which God has placed them.

SW709 Old and New Testament Survey
Required Class-- IMB approved for wives’ requirement

Instructors: Dr. T.J. Betts and Dr. Thomas J. Schreiner

Text: The Bible

Optional Text: Holman Quicksource Guide to Understanding the Bible by Kendall H. Easley (Holman Bible Publishers) ISBN 0805494332

Description: You will be enriched as you study God’s Word from Genesis to Revelation in this life changing overview course. Short quizzes are given weekly. Portions of both the Old Testament and New Testament are required reading.

SW712 Marriage and Family
Elective Class

Instructor: Mrs. Tanya K. York

Text: Creative Counterpart by Linda Dillow (Thomas Nelson) ISBN 0785263764

Description: This course will give biblical, practical and applicable principles concerning marriage and family. Each week we seek to retain or regain the true biblical perspective of marriage and family life that culture continues to challenge. We will consider the defining of your roles, conflict management, the specific needs of your husband, and ways to nurture your marriage and keep it fresh and growing. Included will be resourceful ideas for developing other family relationships such as in-laws and children. We will be encouraging and challenging each other as we enjoy our God-given responsibilities and opportunities of family.

SW713 Mentoring
Elective Class

Instructor: Mrs. Jaylynn P. Cook

Text: Spiritual Mothering by Susan Hunt (Crossway) ISBN 1433503131

Description: This course offers a study of the biblical foundation for mentoring, mentoring as a lifestyle, a mother’s role in mentoring her children, and beginning a mentoring ministry in the local church.

Added in 2022:

SW701 Baptists Then and Now
Required Class

Instructor: Dr. John Wilsey and Mrs. Mary Mohler

Text: None purchased—required reading is posted on Canvas

Description: Baptists Then is a short course in Baptist history that encompasses the first three weeks of this six week course. Topics include: the origins of Baptists and Southern Baptists; key personalities and events as the convention grew; and controversies such as anti-missionary schism, the Landmark Movement and the rise of liberalism.

Baptists Now seeks to explore the programs and structure of our denomination. We will trace the Cooperative Program and show how it is known as the most effective and efficient denominational mission system in the world. The roles of our Southern Baptist seminaries and agencies will be laid out. We will also look closely at our missionary sending agencies through the eyes of those who have been commissioned as missionaries. All of these elements will be studied from the perspective of a ministry wife who wishes to be better informed about our denomination.

SW713 Closer Look at New Testament: Mark
Elective Class-- IMB approved for wives' requirement

Instructor: Dr. Bill Cook

Text: 40 Days in Mark by William F. Cook (B&H Books, 2020)
ISBN 9781535993449

Description: This course will be an exegetical study of the Life of Christ in the Gospel of Mark. The focus of the course will be the biblical text with attention given to how the life of Jesus is relevant and applicable to our lives and ministry in the 21st century. Dr. Cook's new book will be the text. Weekly quizzes will be given. Mrs. Jaylynn Cook will be the coordinator/grader. (This class is approved by IMB as meeting the college course requirement for wives.)

SW716 Introduction to Biblical Interpretation
Elective Class-- IMB approved for wives' requirement

Instructor: Drs. Rob Plummer and Brian Vickers

Text: 40 Questions About Interpreting the Bible SECOND Edition by Robert Plummer
(Kregel) B08TDYPFX1

Description: The purpose of this course is to introduce students to the goal of interpretation. In so doing we shall look at the part that the Holy Spirit plays in interpretation, how to arrive at the meaning of biblical text as well as their present day implications, and to learn how to interpret the various literary genres (poetry, prophecy, parable, etc.) found in the Bible.

These professors will teach this important class on a certificate level, as is the case with all SWI classes. They will provide a plethora of resources related to the book, including powerpoint presentations, lesson plans, discussion guide, etc. The goal is that students will be prepared to teach a group of women in their church a class on biblical interpretation.

SW719 Cross Cultural Ministries
Elective Class

Instructor: Mrs. Donna Martin

Text: When It's Time to Go by Brandi Biesiadecki (Tertius House Publishers) ISBN 0984343903

Out of print but a free copy will be sent to registered students on request.

Description: The course introduces the Biblical foundation for missions. Contemporary issues will be explored including: the appointment process, cross cultural communication, practical issues in the missionary life. Guest speakers related to both NAMB and IMB will be a part of this class as well. Students will be expected to complete weekly assignments and participate in class discussions. Students will complete a final project based upon the student's integration of class lectures and resources, with her own personal pilgrimage. Students should complete and upload the survey posted on Canvas once they register for the class so as to help determine specific desired content for this unique class.
