At the time of the field essay, you will be given two questions, each pertaining to the theme of theology and the arts. You will be asked to answer one of the two questions. The reading list below is provided to help you prepare for this field essay.

