Doctoral Development Scholarship

The Research Doctoral Studies office is pleased to announce a new scholarship for students who present papers at major academic conferences. These scholarships will be awarded in the Fall and Spring semesters. Students interested in applying for this scholarship should follow the guidelines below.

General Scholarship Information

- Scholarships will be awarded to students who successfully demonstrate eligibility according to the scholarship qualifications.
- Students have two opportunities per year to earn a scholarship: once in the Fall and once in the Spring.
- The specific dollar amount awarded will depend on the number of successful applicants.
- Successful applicants will receive the scholarship as a credit on their SBTS student account.
- Applications for Fall 2014 are due August 27 and decisions announced by September 12.
- Applications for Spring 2015 are due February 11 and decisions announced by February 27.

Qualifications

- Students must be currently enrolled in the Ph.D., D.Miss., or Ed.D. program and remain in good academic standing.
- Students must demonstrate that he or she will be presenting a paper at an upcoming academic conference. Usually a copy of an email from the conference or its representative will suffice.
- Students may apply for the scholarship more than once but may not use the same paper more than once.
- Students must meet all application deadlines.

Application Process

- Submit copies of the following to the Research Doctoral Studies office (Norton 157)
 - Completed application
 - Copy of detailed abstract
 - Proof of conference acceptance (such as a copy of an email)
- All applications will be reviewed after the Fall or Spring deadlines, and students will be notified within two weeks.
- All decisions will be made by the Doctoral Development Scholarship Committee.
