

Biblical Theology Entrance Exam
School of Theology

Question:

The entrance exam in Biblical Theology will consist of one question and two translations. Each section (the translation and the question) are designed to take an hour of the applicant's two hour time allotment.

1. Translation: The applicant will translate a short portion of the Hebrew text and the Greek text giving relevant parsings as requested. The passage will come from the Hebrew Scriptures and the Greek Scriptures respectively.
2. General Question: The applicant will be asked to write an essay on a Biblical Theology topic. The student should focus their studies on the history and methods of Biblical Theology. The applicant should follow the suggested bibliography to study.

Instructions:

Students are advised to study all of the works below. Questions are generally fairly broad, involving some major issue, method, or the history of Biblical Theology.

Bibliography:

Klink and Lockett, Understanding Biblical Theology. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 2012.

Hamilton, God's Glory in Salvation Through Judgment. Wheaton: Crossway, 2010

Hafemann and House, Central Themes in Biblical Theology. Grand Rapids: Baker Academic, 2007.

Childs, Biblical Theology of OT and NT. Philadelphia: Fortress Press, 2012.

C.H. Scobie "History of Biblical Theology" in New Dictionary of Biblical Theology (Downers Grove: InterVarsity, 2000).